Errata

In the article, "A Multiple-Rate Digital Command Detection System With Range Cleanup Capability," by J. R. Lesh, which appeared in The Deep Space Network Progress Report 42-26, pp. 91–101, the following corrections should be made:

On page 92, second column, third paragraph, line 5 should read, "For example, if $f_{x'}$ denotes a square wave."

On page 93, first column, paragraph three, line 10 "$\bar{c}$ by a transmission $c$" should read "$c$ by a transmission $\bar{c}$."

On page 95, first column, second paragraph, line 3, the expression "$c_k$" should read "$\bar{c}_k$."
